To all and singular comes greetings from Lord Cyriac Grymsdale,

The days of my time as champion of the barony known as the Sacred Stone draw to a close. In honor of this occasion, and inspired by Baroness Kisayia's worth and beauty I shall turn myself to such a challenge as will do her and the barony great honor.

Let all barons, knights, squires, and gentles at arms, who are not banished nor enemies of King Robert de Rath our lord, come to the place that I abide on the Field of Honor at the birth day of the barony on the tenth day of September. I shall joyously receive all challenges with matched knightly weapons of Sword and Shield in the English fashion, for contests between One and Ten Blows received. Should I be bested, I shall gift you with a token to present to the one that inspires you. The names of all challengers will be writ in book with words of wisdom, so that all future champions may know the gentles of coat armour that aided me in this Challenge and consider their words on their journey.

Done this day in the city of Charlesbury Crossing, in the year of our Lord. May God bless all good men-at-arms who read this, and may the Lord bring them to good ends, and I pray that they may never fall into the hands of the unjust, the wicked and cruel.

Lord Cyriac Grymsdale
Champion of the Barony of the Sacred Stone
Man at arms to Count Valharic Caligula Aurelius
