Inn on the Road IX — “Remember the Mermaid”

March 26, 2005

Canton of Aire Faucon
Camp Loy White, Casar, NC

*“What things have we seen,
Done at the Mermaid! Heard words that have been
So nimble, and so full of subtile flame,
As if that every one from whence they came
Had meant to put his whole wit in a jest ...”*

--Thomas Fuller (1608–61)

Return with us to the Mermaid Tavern of Old London, where the literary giants of the Middle Ages gathered for revelry and inspiration. Enjoy the day’s tournaments, gaming, and especially the feasting. Master Robear de Bardoulf, Master Oshi, THLord Thorgrimr inn Kyrrri, and company will prepare a sumptuous feast that will be remembered in song and word for many years to come!

Fighting – Both heavy and rapier fighters will enjoy rousing tourneys, followed by a boastful challenge contest, where they can bring their own heralds to make their fetes of bravery and deeds of chivalry known beyond a doubt to the populace. The winners of these challenges of boast and wit will be determined by ladies’ choice. Competitions for our archers will be held, as well.

Arts & Sciences – Two A&S competitions will be held at the Mermaid. In honor of the great writers who frequented the Mermaid, including Sir Walter Raleigh, Ben Jonson, Beaumont, and William Shakespeare, a competition will be held for the best short literary work inspired by these masters. The second competition will be for any item evoking the Mermaid. Documentation for these competitions is highly recommended, but not required to enter.

An open display area will also be provided. Bring your A&S projects, whether completed or in process, to inspire us all.

Gaming – Games of chance are always a favorite at the Mermaid, and this year is no exception. We’ll have a variety of favorites to challenge your luck and wits.

Merchants – You are welcome but must provide your own tables and shelter. Limited merchant space will be available in the lower level of the feast hall, but please let us know you are coming.

Feast – The Mermaid will undoubtedly be filled to its gills for Master Robear and company’s feast! Since feast will surely sell out early, please make your reservations today. Feast space will be available only by pre-reservation.

Cost – On Board $14, Off Board $7, Children 12 and under ½ price, Children under 3 are guests of the Canton. Make all checks payable to “Canton of Aire Faucon, SCA Inc.” Send reservations to the Cyriac Grymsdale (Kevin Towery), 1231 Monroe Drive, Gastonia, NC 28054.
